TRAVEL MAGIC NETWORK · SHIP GUIDE

Which Ship Has What?

Three classes, eight ships - what changes is the dining, the adults-only spaces, the shows and the characters.

From Tiffany at Travel Magic Network - Personalized planning from first call to final itinerary.

On every ship: rotational dining (same serving team nightly), youth clubs, theatre shows, first-run movies and character meets. Tick the box on any ship you want to shortlist.

Choosing your stateroom

Inside
Best value, no window. On Dream and Fantasy, a "magical porthole" shows a live ocean view.

Oceanview
A real window or porthole and more daylight, without the balcony price. Smart for port-heavy itineraries.

Verandah
Your own private balcony for coffee, sunsets and sail-aways - especially worth it in Alaska or the Caribbean.

Concierge
The largest suites, a private lounge and sun deck, and a concierge team. Book early - they sell out first.

Location matters as much as type: midship, lower decks feel the least motion; rooms near elevators are busier. Tiffany's edge: she knows hidden-gem staterooms that aren't shown on the deck plans - oversized corners and obstructed-view bargains. Tell her your ship and dates before you pick a room number.

Not sure which ship - or which room - fits your family?
